I agree - maybe
we should send what we have and offer
to discuss/supply
additional info if they desire it - do we have any profiles done on ST, i.e., NY Times etc. we might include to provide flesh?

Perhaps we should discuss this one -- how about sending both the Navy photo and the Agency one in (latter in black and white). Do we want to flesh out his biography -- I would think we need more detail for this publication. jdc

Dear Sirs:

We are planning to do an article on the life and career of Adm. Stansfield Turner for a forthcoming issue of CURRENT BIOGRAPHY, which for over three decades has appeared both as a monthly periodical and as a yearbook. This reference publication is used the world over in public, school, college, and research libraries. Newspapers, radio and television stations, and government agencies often consult it for accurate information on people in the news.

We would appreciate receiving from you biographical information, news releases, and a photograph.

Please understand that we charge absolutely nothing to include a biography in our publication. We choose our candidates only because they are prominent in the news or because librarians have had inquiries about them from the public.

Thank you for your help.

Sincerely yours,

Charles Moritz, Editor
